

Seafood Market Dalian - China

1. The market is underground, where it is cool in summer and warm in winter. It is under a park.

2. The market takes on a bazaar atmosphere, where all prices are negotiable. Each little section is run by a different family.

3. Rows and rows of dried seafood.

4. Bulk dried roasted pollock, probably of Russian origin, but dried in China.

5

6